ATHENS MONTESSORI SCHOOL 2010 ELEMENTARY SUMMER PROGRAM
8 Weeks: June 7-July 26

An experienced staff with innovative approaches will guide children through a creative landscape of studies using art, music, fieldtrips, and games. Early morning drop-off and afternoon care available.

Dates	Program	Instructor
1. June 7-11	Montessori Rocks Three easy chords to "kickin" cool fun. Join Vicki Tavernier and Sarah Shumaker for a rollicking week of rock, blues and folk tunes made with 3 chords. Try your hand at piano, guitar and basic drumming.	Vicki Tavernier
2. June 14-18	Puppetry Arts Learn about the art of puppetry around the globe and through the ages. We will create several styles of puppets and create our own puppet shows.	Maggie Hunter
3. June 21-25	Globe Trotting II Become an explorer! Join this enriching and adventurous week of touring the globe. From the highest peaks of vast landscapes to the tiniest islands that dot the South Seas, elementary students will learn about the fascinating facts and features that define a place.	Melody Mosby
4. June 28-July 2	Games Join us for a week of games! We will spend the mornings playing soccer, tag football, field hockey, softball and kickball. We will travel to the intramural fields to play some of the games.	Aleshia Laughner
5. July 5-9	The First Americans Discover America's first cultures through music, art and reenactment. We will emphasize storytelling, weaving and drumming to explore our country's cultural past.	Maggie Hunter
6. July 12-16	Yoga Join us for a week of fun, storytime yoga. Learn the basics of this ancient discipline, as well as ways to incorporate yoga into your everyday life.	Aleshia Laughner
7. July 19-23	From Story to Stage Experience a week of exploring different theater making activities—from storytelling and improvisation to creative movement and building a character. Every session will challenge students to explore many aspects of performance through playful and creative activities that encourage them to work with others. Both those with no prior theatrical experience and those who have worked in this area previously, will find a non-threatening, nurturing environment to discover new skills and develop existing ones.	Niki Tulk
8. July 26-30	Greek and Roman Mythology Explore the ancient realms of Greek and Roman mythology. Learn about the the first superheroes and how these mythological figures have come to symbolize so much in our culture.	Maggie Hunter
